

Penetrance

high

Mendelian diseases

Unusual for common traits (unless no selection occurred, e.g. eye color)

most findings

Most variants identified by GWAS

low

Hard to identify genetically

large sample size required (to have statistical power)

rare

0.01

low-frequency

0.05

common

MAF

large sample size required (to observe variant)

